

The Allegheny-Clarion Valley Cheerleading Squad once again qualified for the PIAA State Cheer Championship. The Falcons placed 1st overall and Won the Small Varsity Division at the District IX Competitive Spirit Competition that was held on January 6th at Dubois Area High School. They have won the title of DIX champion 3 out of 4 years. This will be the 6th consecutive year they have qualified for states and are proudly representing Falcon Nation by heading to Hershey. The State Championship will be held on January 19th and 20th at the Giant Center in Hershey, PA. "They girls have worked hard this year and have overcome some huge obstacles! We are exceedingly proud on their continued success, determination and hard work. We are two very PROUD coaches." Stacey & Jacqui

Also representing the District IX at states will be the following teams: Karns City - Medium Division Champion, Keystone - Co-Ed Division Champion, also qualifying were Elk County, Moniteau, and Dubois

Helping the squad to achieve their success were coaches Stacey Fox, Jacqui Shook, volunteer coach Grant Grasha, Jacqueline Hetzler and JH coach Erin Altman. "Thanks you to all the family and friends of Falcon Nation for their continued support".

Members of the squad include: Emma Fox, Lexie Slater, Taylor Cooper, Lauren Alworth, Morgan Campbell, Madelyn Dittman, Abri Forsythe, Angelina Pierotti, Madyson Hetzler, Lily Preston, Chloe Dittman, Allison Lewis and Makenna Armagost.